Location Establishes Opportunity

Falls Church High School and our homes are located in one of the most important parts of the United States: Metro Washington D.C. Not only in Washington D.C. the home of our nation's President; it's where the nation's Government is located. The location of our community in the Metro Area offers all of us a variety of education advantages.

A routine field trip for government class students every year is a tour of our Capital. The students spend most of the day seeing and understanding the working heart of our government. Only in such an opportunistic location as Falls Church can students enjoy this learning experience at relative ease.

Washington D.C. offers culture to the young and old of all races. The Kennedy Center in D.C. is the home of the National Symphony Orchestra, and is the center for the Performing Arts. There is a continuous menu of events and performances year around for audiences of all ages. The Kennedy Center is one of many cultural opportunities within minutes of our community that offers something for everyone.

The Arlington Memorial Cemetery is located in Arlington, Virginia across from Washington

D.C. on the Potomac River. The national resting place for the people who have gallantly died for America and it's freedom is next to our community. The solemn peace and serenity in this setting of honor and respect is within minutes of Falls Church. The location of our school and community near such an important national memorial is an honor and privilege for us all.

Living in Falls Church and attending Falls Church High School offers opportunities to students that are just not available to other communities in America. Falls Church, a special place to live and learn.

F.C. School System: Refined

Falls Church is a unique place to attend high school. The friendly atmosphere and quality learning experience is every-where in Falls Church.

The warm and friendly manner of the teachers and administration is evident everyday. Mr. Tait is always ready in the halls with an outgoing "Good morning," or "How are you today?" The teachers are sincerely concerned about the learning progress of their students and are seen many days after school giving extra help. The interest and concern of the the teachers and administrators is a characteristic of Falls Church.

The students here at Falls Church play a major role in school events. The clubs and abundant student participation is the evidence of student interest that works all year long. Sports, cheerleading, the marching band, the various clubs and all of the other activities are student powered, and with the exception of a school sponsor, are student run. The support and success of the many activities at Falls Church is the result of excellent student interest and involvement.

Falls Church is an enjoyable place to learn. The warmth and friendship between the students and the excellent teaching staff truly make for a great school.

Fun In The Sun

F.C. Students Find Summer Fun In Many Ways.

The summer started with beach week and ended with the start of the 85-86 school year. Tanning, vacationing, and bumming around best describes what went on in between. Sunny, care-free days at the shore seemed endless, for those who went to the shore. It meant a week or two of parties, sunning, surfing, or snoozing. Entertainment was no problem, anything is better than school.

Those of us who thought otherwise, and went to school for a few weeks during the summer, were rewarded with trips to Germany, France, Italy, England and Spain through the Studies Abroad program.

Concerts were another popular pastime that took place (con't on page 11).

Summer Time

summer: Howard Jones, Bryan Adams, MaDonna, Tina Turner, and George Thoroughgood, just to name a few, were some of the more sought after concert tickets. The Bruce Springsteen concert seemed to be the most talked about event of the summer.

Very few people you talk to can say they didn't wait in line for what seemed like days to get those precious tickets.

The summer of '85 was a memorable one to say the least. "We had a lot of fun but it is good to get back to school," one senior to be said, "YEAH - for those of us who only have one year to go!"

Not Again!

Every Year Students Dreed The Start Of School.

Summer seems to get shorter every year and August rolls around sooner. That means the start of school; time to prepare for four quarters, 36 weeks, or 180 days of school (which ever sounds better to you).

The seniors will start the year off, as usual, by getting freshmen lost, sending them to the wrong room and selling them elevator and pool passes (to the non-existent pool on the roof). Sophomores are a different story, they are like freshmen that know their way around but haven't learned the art of being an upper classman.

For the freshmen it's the first step toward the long journey through high school. To the seniors, it's those last few painful steps to the end. The sophomores and juniors? To them it's just the same old thing (not the beginning and nowhere near the end).

School started a little early for some Falls Church students this year. The football players, track team, cheerleaders, band, and yearbook staff started their school year two weeks ahead of time along with the teachers.

The Friday before school started a Freshman Orientation was held to acquaint the freshmen with Falls Church. When Monday came, though, freshmen were still confused and lost (as all freshmen are the first week or so) to the seniors delight. (con't on page 14)

Not Again

(con't from page 12) The first bell rang at 7:45 am, only sophomores and juniors were in class on time, the seniors had to make their traditional entry, LATE.

The first of school, Fairfax County students were let out early several days (which none of them argued with) due to a heat wave. The seniors thought these several days of shortened school days were great, this meant days of laying in the sun at the lake (a traditional spring activity).

After the heat wave another reason to close school arose, Hurricane Gloria. This flooded out much of the D.C. Area and all of Georgetown. Students celebrated being out of school with hurricane parties and get togethers. But soon it was over and school was back in session.

Free At Last! Well, Maybe Not?

For Many F.C. Students School
Does Not End With The Final Bell.

At 2:05 the final bell rings and the hall fills with hundreds of rowdy students.

Many head for home or work, but for some the school day is not over.

On the field or in the gym, athletes can be found practicing their sports. After school the gym lobby becomes an obstacle course with the flag corps twirling their flags and the cheerleaders practicing their routines.

Meanwhile, in the classrooms an array of activities are taking place. Students slave over makeup work and tests. Clubs meet to plan up-coming events and discuss the business of the day. The yearbook staff struggles to meet deadlines.

In the library, students search for information to finish their research papers and essays. While still other students are in the career center looking for information on colleges.

Thus, for many students at Falls Church the day is not over at 2:05.

Normal? Not This Week!

A Small Pride Week Turn-Out Helps In A Big Way.

"This is the best Pride Week we've had in the five years I've been here," commented Ed Ryan, principal, on Pride Week 85. The week beginning September sixteenth and running through the twenty-first was a wild one for Falls Church High School. Vacationers, sets of twins, nerds galore, and countless teenagers dressed in similar garb roamed the halls. This occurrence was not a major coincidence, but an act designed to raise school spirit. This special event, appropriately named "Pride Week," consists of students and an occasional teacher dressing up in costume to match the theme of the day. Starting the week off successfully was vacation day, followed by twin day, nerd day, class day, and concluding with the traditional green and white day on Friday.

Many participants won magazine subscriptions or an album of their choice as a prize for having the best outfit in accordance with the day's theme. Some students were bold and went all the way. Senior Carter Borden dressed in his scuba gear for vacation day. When asked about his attire, Borden commented that "I know I look pretty stupid, (con't p. 21)

PRIDE WEEK

but it was great when I'd walk by and people would say 'Oh my God, look at him.' Junior John Bibb summed up his feelings on Pride Week with the statement "Nerds Rule."

Even though many people enjoyed the week, there were those who said that it was sadly lacking character. When asked her thoughts on the matter, Mrs. Louis, and aide, replied, "Did we already have Pride Week?" Several students were disappointed in the small number of participants. Sophomore, Robin Smith noted that "The days could have been more creative." Ian Brown suggested this, "Pride Week is getting old. They should change the theme."

Despite the minority of costumed enthusiasts, the spirit at Falls Church was thriving. Not only was the level of spirit raised, but the noise level was as well. On the final day, the cheerleaders clapped and yelled their way through the halls during first period. Students also made noise while participating in the annual hall-decorating contest. The seniors, showing unmatched determination and an incredible turnout, crushed the other classes in this event.

All of the effort, determination, and imagination spent during Pride Week led to a very big event for F.C., the football game between Falls Church and Annandale. Emotions ran high, as well as the Jaguars spirit which was soaring! One of the largest turnouts for an away game took the spirit with them to root for the team. After a tough battle, Falls Church was victorious!! By: Tom Dalkins, Haynie Mayhew, Jay Miles.

Rallying Together

Pep Rallies Raise Spirit And Pride For Falls Church

"V-I-C-T-O-R-Y . . . victory, victory Falls Church High." . . . "We've got spirit, yes we do. We've got spirit, how bout you?" . . . "Are . . . you . . . ready . . . to . . . JAM . . . two, three, four . . . back it up two, three, four . . . JAM!"

On a Friday during second period, one might hear such strange cheers and chants coming from the gym. Upon further investigation one would soon learn that a F.C. pep rally was going on.

"Pep rallies are great, because it gives the seniors (class of 86') a chance to prove that we are the most spirited class!" commented Kim de Beyer. Pep rallies are held to raise not only class spirit, but school spirit too.

These rallies not only give F.C. students a chance to cheer, throw confetti and be crazy, but they also give the chance for the different athletic teams to be introduced.

Even though several pep rallies have been cancelled this year and some new rules have been imposed (like not throwing toilet paper), nothing has dampened that Jaguar spirit. The classes still make posters and bring balloons to show their pride. In fact, the spirit level is soaring due to strong

One festivity during the homecoming pep rally was a tug-of-war. One side consisted of captains and co-captains of Varsity Cheerleading and Football. The other side consisted of captains of

of a sudden, the fall sports teams lined up and went to the side where their captains were and started to yell. The climax was the rope breaking in the middle and sending all participants on the floor. Fun was had by all while uniting all the teams together! photo: Rich Coupland class spirit and the winning of the "Bell" from Stuart for the first time in seven years.

PEP RALLIES

"As a cheerleader, pep rallies this year are so much better and much more fun. I wish there were more!" stated Jenny Hummel. Other things have helped make this year's pep rallies more successful such as: new cheers and chants which the cheerleaders learned at camp, an award winning band, and new entertainment like the "tug of war" by the fall sports team captains. This "tug of war" took place in the Homecoming pep rally. It started out to be just the team captains but ended up being almost all of the fall sports teams. When the Varsity side started losing, the rest of the Varsity decided to jump in, so of course the JV and Frosh teams jumped in. The result was the rope breaking and sending students flying across the gym.

"The pep rallies this year have produced more spirit than ever, and the students should expect more next year." commented Senior Jeff Hart.

Defeated But Proud!

"Homecoming is great because the week before ends up turning into a party while building the floats," commented Rich Rahim when asked what he likes best about Homecoming. This year the theme was 'At the Movies'. The seniors chose 'Alice in Wonderland', the juniors 'Jaws', sophomores 'Return of the Living Dead', and freshmen 'Superman'. The junior float took first place with the seniors in close second. "Even though the senior float didn't win, we had a great time making it and a lot of fun taking the float to the school," remarked Fonda Hussey. Scarlett Knott commented, "I think all the classes did a fantastic job on their floats. Their spirit, hard work and dedication is evident."

The Homecoming game took place on October 25th. At half-time the score was 13-0, Chantilly's favor. This did not dampen that Jaguar spirit, the seniors and junior sections cheered on for the Jags.

HOOMEOMING COURT

"I was embarrassed at first but it turned out to be fun." commented Pete Gaaserud, the first F.C. Homecoming King. The Junior class sponsored the court nominations during lunch the week before Homecoming. Senior Heather Hutson commented, "I felt I could not smile big enough to show how happy I was to have made it."

The Falls Church Homecoming game followed tradition with the parade of class floats along with the court being escorted across the field at halftime. Unfortunately, it had been a rainy week and Sharon Harp joked, "My shoes fell off twice while crossing the field but I had a good time." The court was presented: Seniors; Terri Allen, Karley Watt, Heather Hutson and Sharon Harp, Junior Mia Pavitt, Sophomore Karen Doff, and Freshman Caitlin Davis and Lori Pocock who tied. Our king, Pete Gaaserud, ended the presentation. After being crowned 85' Homecoming Queen, Karley Watt stated, "I was surprised to be named Homecoming Queen and very honored, too."

The floats and court were presented and the King (Pete Gaaserud) and Queen (Karley Watt) crowned.

The game ended in a Jaguar defeat 26-6. "I sure hoped we would win the game but the rest of the weekend turned out good." stated Jill Hanbury.

The following night the Homecoming Dance was held at Falls Church. "Dinner and partying still remain the best part of Homecoming." remarked Danny Faoro. The turnout at the dance was not that good. It seems that the dance is less and less attended every year.

Football. A Man's Game?

Powder Puff Game At Falls Church Challenges Tradition.

The Date was Tuesday, November 19th. The freshmen and senior girls came to battle against the sophomore and juniors in a fierce game of touch football.

"Now I've seen everything! girls in football jerseys and guys in those little cheerleading skirts. I think I'm gonna die!" exclaimed junior Steve Hodgson with dismay.

Everyone thought the freshmen and senior team would dominate because of Carmen Mann's stupendous ability to run. However, the sophomore and junior team psyched them out by scoring first. The game continued with an abundance of penalties; tripping, clipping, holding, etc . . . Carmen Mann who was defeated time and time again before scored a touchdown with a quick sprint to the outside to make the final score 7-7.

On the sidelines, there was more to see; the male cheerleaders. Everyone said that this year's cheerleaders were the best and funniest ever; they entertained the entire crowd. Besides wearing mini-skirts all day during school and being embarrassed, they had a great time.

This fall, the D.C. area experienced a natural disaster which flooded most of Georgetown.

As the leaves turn and gently fall while the scent of frosty weather moves in with the new season, Falls Church saw everything from a hurricane to Halloween. In the midst of all this, many FC student activities took place during the fall.

The eerie mood of Halloweem was evidenced in the Drama Department's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace." The night of the play was highlighted with a costume dance that saw personalities of all kinds.

Hurricane Gloria took a swing at the metro area and missed. Falls Church saw a free day from school due more to the weatherman's red blooded desire to see some nasty weather than any danger of the hurricane itself. During all this action the American Civ. class braved all and took a field trip to Gettysburg, and got rained on just as much as we did in Falls Church.

And we seniors all remember the favorite thing about fall . . . college applications and SAT's!

Hillbillies Hit Falls Church

Senior Characters Add Life To Sadie Hawkins Dance

Well, that time came around again, November 23, the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. The girls were chasin' and ruslin' up the guys for that special date. "It was great to see some competitive spirit for characters; it shows a lot of senior pride," commented senior Nicole Bibb. The seniors scrubbed all week to earn $20 so they could be the character of their choice. The money collected went toward the senior gift.

The clever senior characters, dressed in their "Hillbilly" clothes, held the traditional square dance in the cafeteria on Friday.

The characters went to Po Folks for their evening grub the night of the dance. "We had a great time at Po Folks and roasting marshmallows before hand," said senior Beth Copes (Grandma Yokum).

"It was the best down home fun we've had in a long time," stated senior Carl Meadows (Lil Abner). At 8:00 p.m. the festivities started. Marryin' Sam (Mr. Margrave) married off anyone who wished to get hitched. "We should have more dances like Sadies," said senior Kim de Beyer.

Time For Giving

Civitans And Peer Relations Show That Christmas Spirit.

Christmas is a time for giving and being with loved ones. But some people are less fortunate than we here at Falls Church are. So, Christmas '85 two groups in Falls Church (the Civitans and Peer Relations group) decided to help those in need.

In the halls of F.C., friends and sweethearts were exchanging gifts, cards, and candy canes, as is done every year; but this year was a little different, for F.C. students donated canned food for the needy families in the area. The idea was thought up by the Peer Relations group and many students got involved in the activity. After the food drive (Canned-Aid as it was called) was over, the Peer Relations group gave a party for the two home rooms who collected the most cans.

The second group who got into the Christmas spirit was the Civitans. They gave a dance at the Kilmer Center (a center for retarded and handicapped children). The kids at the Kilmer Center had a great time and the director of the center asked the Civitans to come back in the spring.

A Night Of Romance

'86 Sweetheart Dance Survives The Snow.

All preparations, flower purchases and elaborate dinner plans fell through at the last minute because of snow covered streets. The Falls Church Sweetheart dance, scheduled for February 22, would have to be rescheduled for March 8. Two more weeks of anxiety for some; two more weeks of excitement for others.

Saturday afternoon found flower shops crowded with Falls Church students, restaurants filling their reservation sheets, and bathrooms strewn with makeup and curlers in the final preparations of the dance. The big night finally arrived with most of the action centering around the court.

April Armstrong, Jenny Hummel, Suzy Barber, and Jill Hanbury surround themselves at the Sweetheart dance with balloons.

Dawn Cannon is being crowned 'Sweetheart Queen' at the dance.

After being crowned king and queen, Dawn Cannon and Charlie Tutt start the first dance.

"I was surprised more than anything, but I'm pleased that I was picked." The court was complete with Trish Lane as Maid of Honor.

Expectations built with the postponement of the dance and some said it was a little bit of a let down, but in all, everyone had a good time as the dance was a success.

Michelle Hood and Christy Fitzgerald sports that paisley shirts.

A very popular fad was the "swatch", all you do is look around and you will find hundreds.

For the more elite group at F.C. you have the sports yet classic watches, (these three amount to over $500).

Angela Winnings wears a broach as do many other girls.

In the Stetson hat with the rattle snake band, Doug Wieland represents a long lasting trend of rednecks at F.C.

Stirrup pants, another fad, are seen frequently in our hallways.

Fads & Fashions

F.C. Students Sport The Latest Fashions.

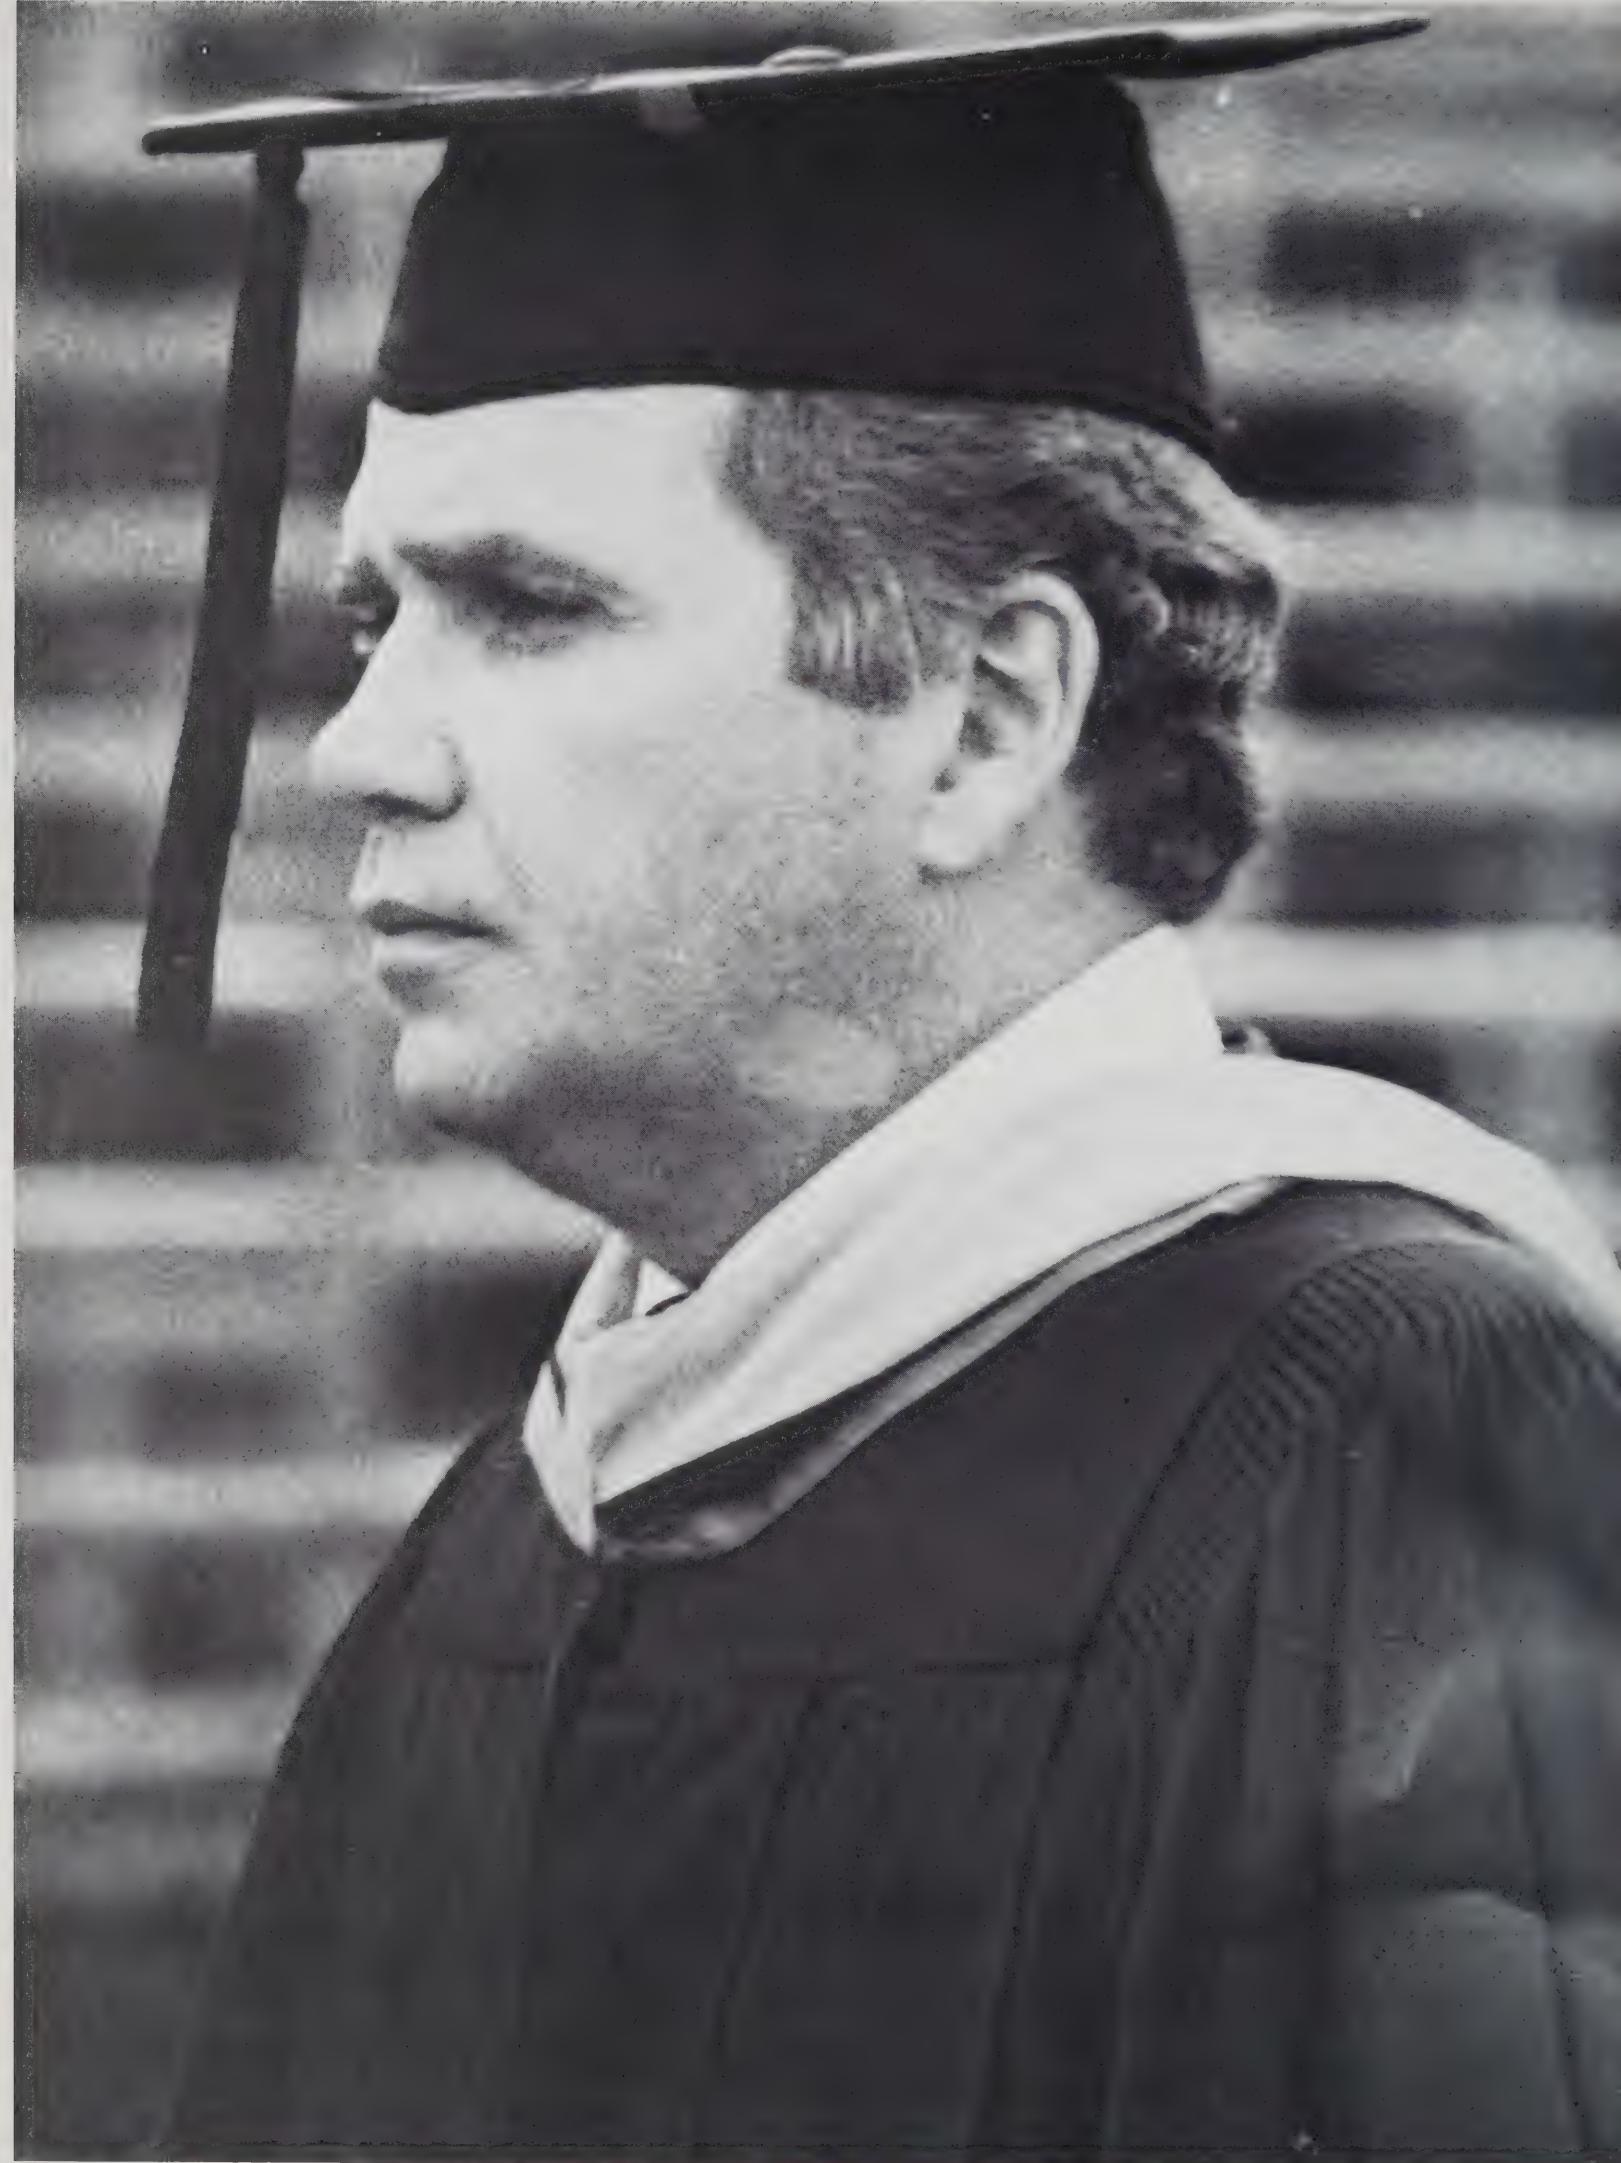

John Bibb, Steve Byrd, and Scott Byrd are not on the weird side they are simply displaying their 501 Levis.

This years fashions ranged anywhere from a Van-Halen T-shirt and jeans to a paisley shirt with a broach pinned at the neck. The majority of the fashion trends at Falls Church this year were geared toward the new-wave taste. Tapered pants, stirrup pants, paisley designs, and oversized shirts dominated the feminine spectrum while jeans, rugby shirts, and a wide range of sweaters were seen on the guys around Falls Church. The ever familiar concert teeshirt and a jean jacket could all ways be found roaming the halls before, during, or after class. Another look which became frequent to Falls Church this year was the punk-look. Spiked hair, possibly in different colors, original clothing designs, and usually an assortment of earrings, and pins to finish the arrangement.

The fashions can always be found together. They are part of the group to which the people belong. Some seem to stay with no intention of changing, while others appear to be just passing through.

Grand Finale

Every year around the middle of the third quarter a strange phenomena occurs at Falls Church. As the temperatures rise, the convertible tops come down., the jams come out and the check out board is filled with passes.

Seniors begin to experience a horrible, dreaded disease- SENIOR SLUMP. Symptoms of this disease are the need of pranks, mass illness on one given day and an all around attitude of "I don't care".

As the awaited moment (GRADUATION) draws closer, fewer and fewer seniors are seen in the halls of Falls Church as senior slump grows worse. Juniors start practicing "the senior attitude" and the freshmen anxiously await the day when they are no longer freshmen. by Suzy Barber

"Surviving the first two weeks of college away from home will be the toughest." Kim de Beyer

"I plan on having a blast this summer and I'm looking forward to starting a Tech." Jeff Hart

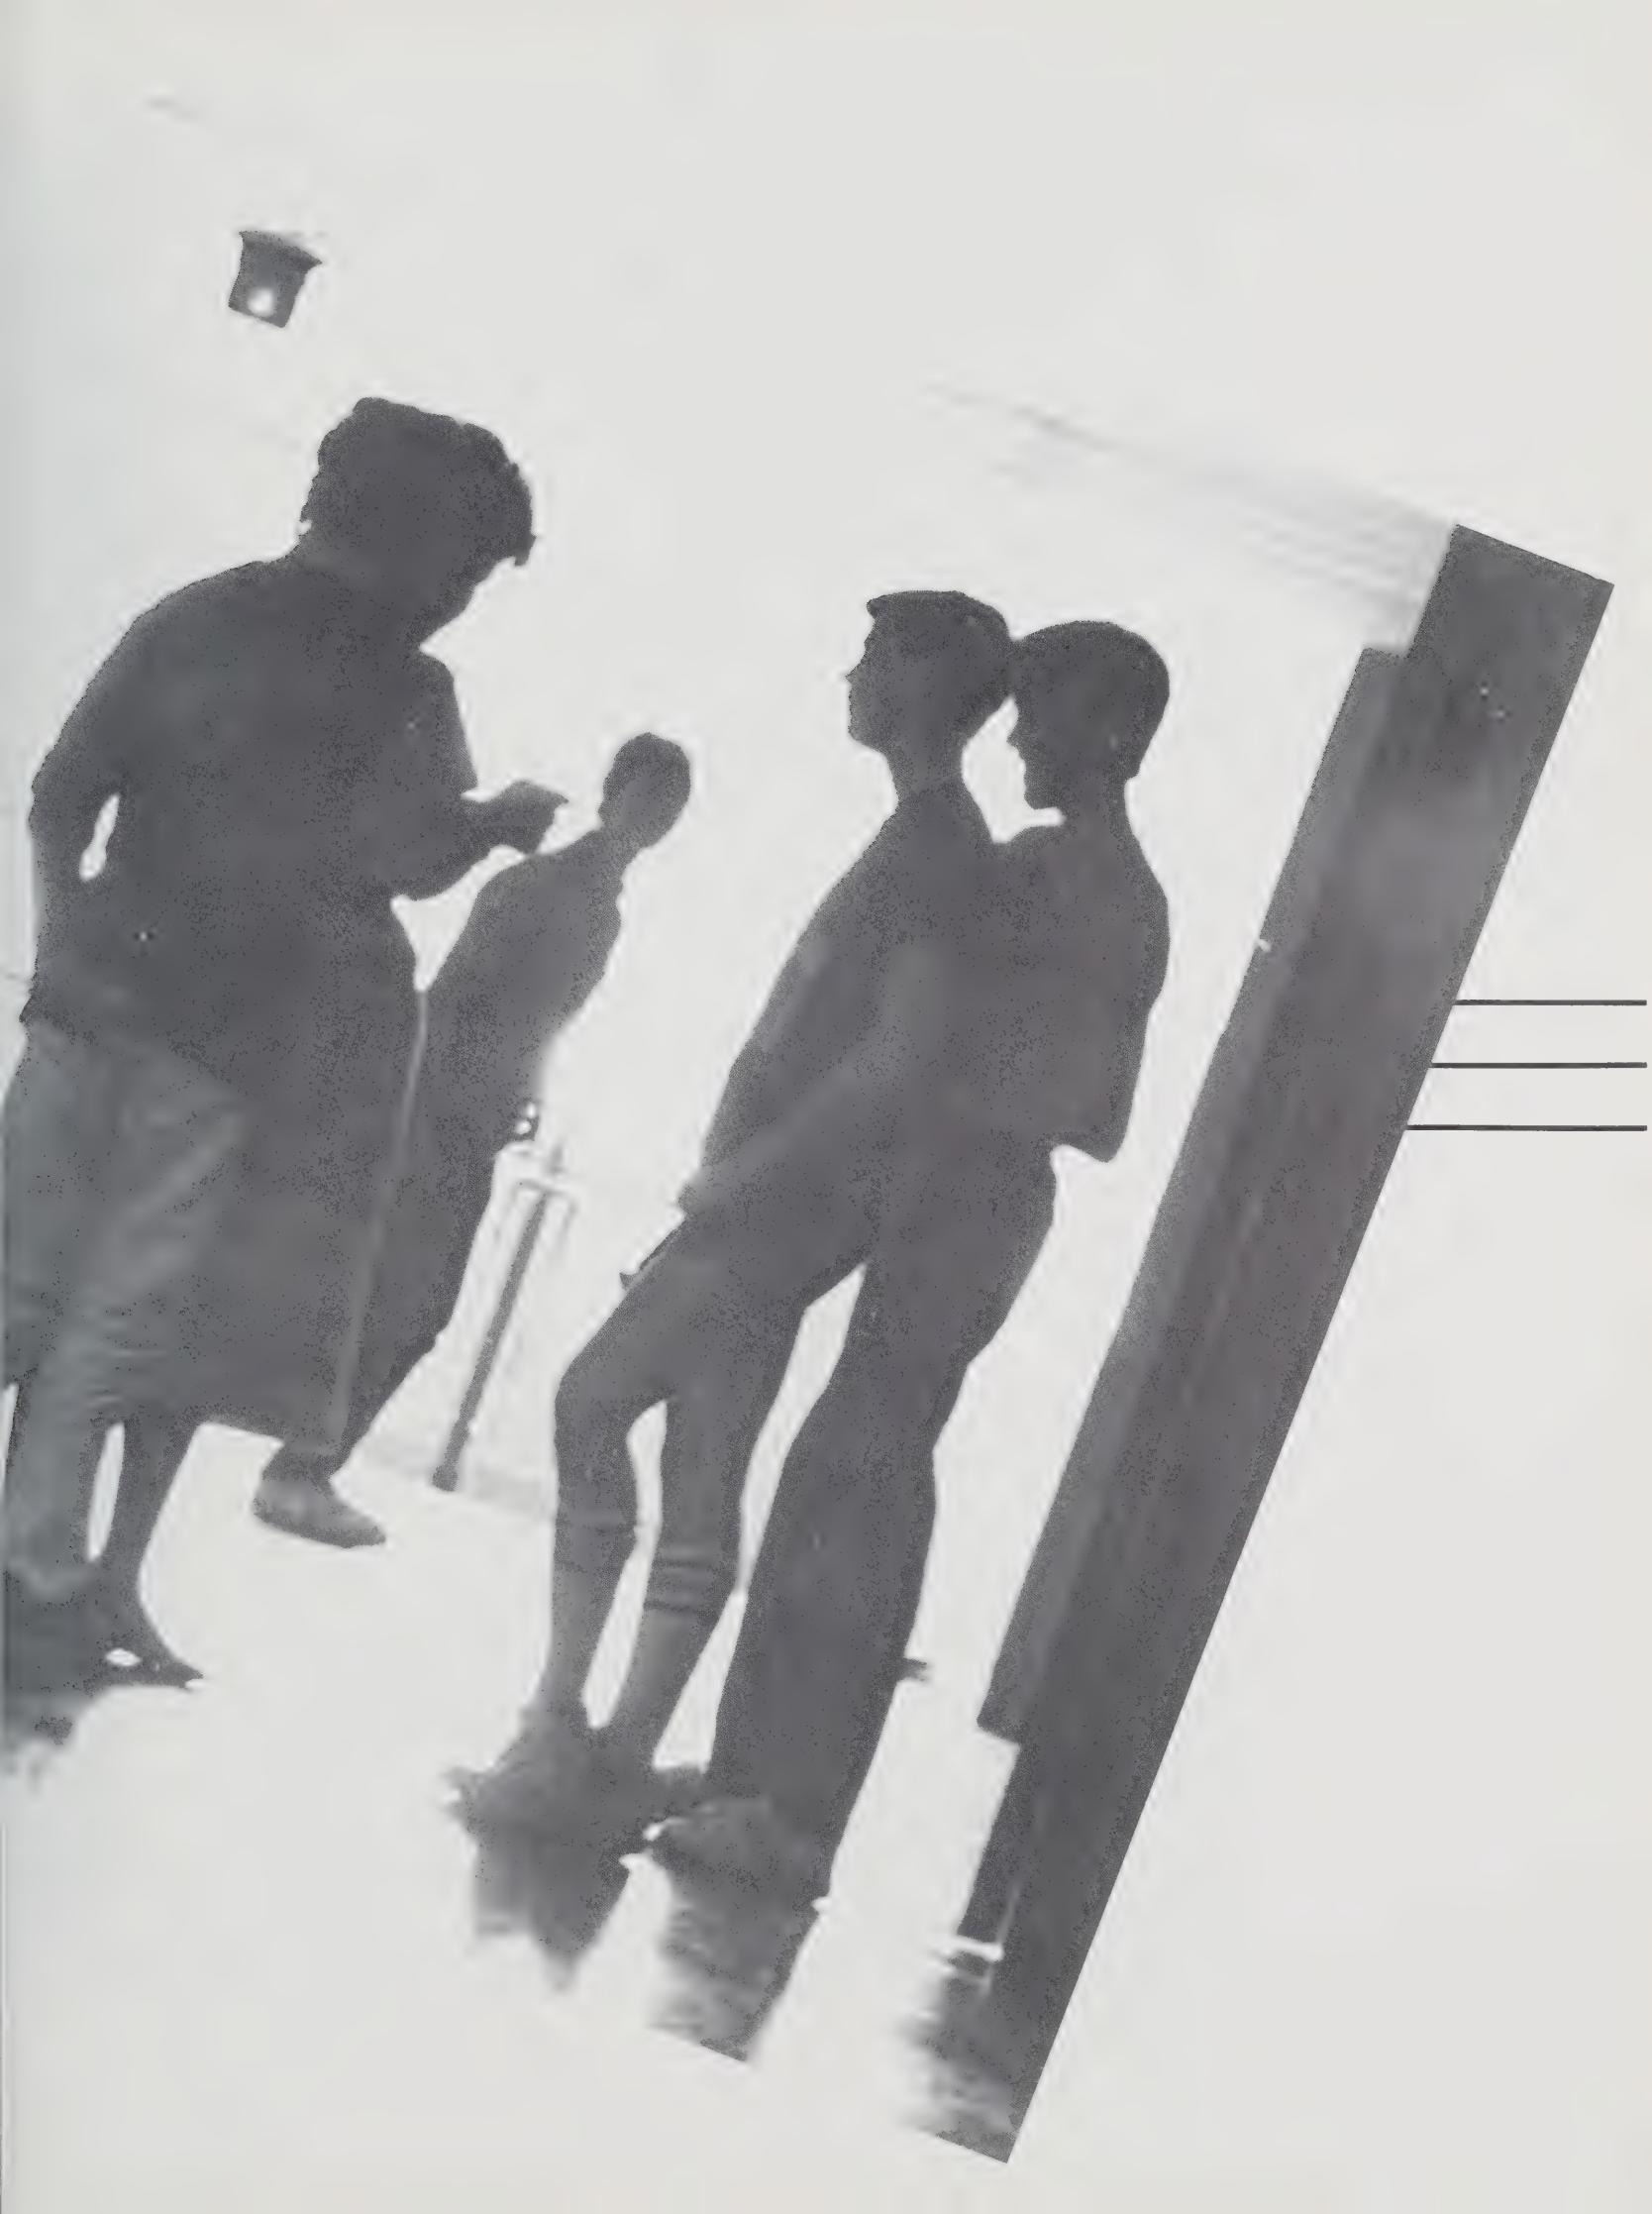

"If I just survive till graduation, the rest of life will be a breeze." Suzy Barber

"I came as a freshman all timid and shy. I leave as a bold senior, a pretty wild guy. Off to college, my bags I will pack. No offence to my teachers, but I'm not coming back." Haynie Mayhew

"I'd like to be remembered as the top most Doors authority, a traveling poet and a person ready to scale the walls of reality in search of the edge that is so readily approached by the masses but crossed only by the elite." Matt McGovern

Class Of '86

Senior Class Shows Spirit By Pulling Together.

The senior class of 1986 at Falls Church High School will be remembered as "more spirited and motivated than any other," as Mr. Steve Lovci, economics and history teacher, stated. His opinion of the class of '86 reflects the feelings of many others as well. Mr. John Morris, first of three different '86 class sponsors, had some very complimentary things to say about the class of '86. He commented, "I have seen the kids grow up since they were freshmen and I've noticed many changes. They have become much more mature. They have also become the most spirited class to have passed through here in years." The second and third sponsors are Mr. Woodson and Ms. Case. Much gratitude has been displayed by the seniors for the help they have given to them. Without good sponsors, it would be difficult to have the spirit it takes to win the hall decorating contest during Pride Week or the float competition on Homecoming. Thanks to wonderful sponsors and their tremendous effort, the class of '86 has done both as well as conquering all other classes in the traditional "Victory" cheer done at every pep rally. In these ways and many others the class of '86 has left its mark on Falls Church High School forever.

Talented Player

Tony Epperson Leads Falls Church Football Team To A Winning Season

"Tony is an exceptional person and athlete that he sets almost an untouchable standards for future Falls Church Athletes", said Sam Jones. Tony is a senior at Falls Church he has an extrodinary talent for playing football. He has played football for F.C. since his Freshmen year and will continue playing in college. He has had many scholarship offers for example Liberty Baptist, James Madison, Virginia Tech. and more although he would rather attend N.C. State, which he has received letters from. When asked about the numerous articles written about him over the past, he commented, "my mom handles all of that, I try to ignore it."

Brian Rankin was asked what he thought about Tony he replied "Tony is the one who has the class. He would not get upset if we won or lost all he cares about is all of us having fun playing football." When Tony was asked for comments about football experiences here at F.C. he replied "The team has really become stronger over the four years, mainly becuase of the increased turnout of participation in the weight room." Tony also thinks that the coaches know how to make the games alot more fun too.

Senior Slump "The Blues"

Well, what exactly is the "Senior Slump"? There has never been a precise definition before but here is a good one for you. The senior slump is basically when a senior feels no emotion for school. Homework is irrelevant at this point and you simply feel like you can not accomplish anything no matter how hard you try. Most blame this mood on the sole fact of college acceptance. "Well, I'm accepted to college so I don't care about high school work anymore," is a common statement among seniors.

Here are some comments direct from the senior class, "I've been in it since the first quarter of 11th grade," commented Scott Byrd. "I'll make no noise, I'll hide my pain, I won't complain, I'll just sit back and tell myself I'm living," Phong Le. "The senior year is like passing in and out of the Twilight Zone. First and Second period I have Humanities and the subjects that we discuss like what is beauty and what is justice are mind-boggling. Just when I think the torture is over . . . Calculus third period, I just give up," says Ganine Nobles. "I don't care anymore, I'm just here physically," commented Kerstin Ragde. "The slump does not hit til mid April so don't give up yet," said Mr. Whitney, calculus teacher.

Taking It With Stride

Carman Mann's Ability Brings Her Noteriety And Fame.

Carmen Mann is Falls Church's best female track runner. Carmen has been running track since her Freshmen year. When Carmen was asked why she ran track she answered "I find it to be a challenge to run and I also enjoy it too."

Carmen has had quite a few colleges inquire about her, including: Duke, U.S.C., North Carolina, U.V.A., Florida State, Penn State, Mary Washington and many more. Carmen has not made up her mind as to where she would like to go.

When asked how he thought Carmen would do in college, Major Wells replied, "I don't know, it's up to her. Carmen just sets her own goals and tries to break them." Carmen has been making and breaking her own records since she started running track. She has been voted ALL-MEET 1985 for indoor track. Also for indoor track, Carmen took five first places in districts, two in Regionals, and broke the indoor record for high jump ($5'8\frac{1}{4}''$) in State and took first place in long jump, and third place in the 500 meter dash. Altogether this earned her 26 points all by herself in the competition. She was also recently named National High School ALL AMERICAN in high jump.

Finding Our Future

Career Center Helps Out Falls Church Students.

The success of the career center has been seen in the avalanche of college visits this year. For the first time the career center has brought prospective colleges to Falls Church in strength.

The volunteer time of Mrs. Carrera and the increasing influence of the career center has given Falls Church seniors a needed guide to colleges and careers this year.

It happens every year, all over the United States, seniors start to panic about what to do after high school. At Falls Church we have a career center to help us out. It is not just to help students find colleges, but also to help students find careers. The career center would be of no help to students if it were not for the help of the Career Center aide, Mrs. Mary Jeanne Carrera and parent volunteers, who assist her.

Carrera, who previously worked as a volunteer, has been working in the Career Center for four years now. She became interested in being a volunteer because of her own children attending Falls Church. Carrera has been a tremendous help to wayward seniors with the aid of computers and tons of college brochures.

C-o-l-l-e-g-e Time To Move On.

What do most seniors think about while in high school? Right, what college to apply to. We do have a few brave seniors that applied to the Ivy League: Lee Rizwick, Mary Christ, and Mike Souryal. Many have applied to Virginia Tech., James Madison, and University of Virginia. The most common major seems to be "undecided."

The one thing that drives seniors crazy is waiting for their "Letter of Acceptance." "I just don't care anymore, whoever will accept me, I will gladly go," commented Terri Smith. Some other "college bound" seniors commented, "I have an interview for Cornell and I'm nervous as a big dog." (Janine Nobles) Jeff Hart said, "Well, I decided Ivy League schools was a long shot so I'll be happy with Virginia Tech." "I've applied to eight different colleges all over the United States. I've been accepted to two already but I'm still waiting," commented Peter Gaaserud.

Merit Finalists

Chiu, Kreck, And Magee

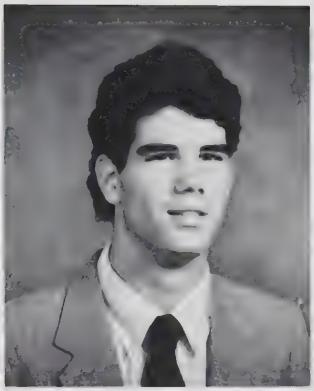

With the SATs and PSATs just around the corner, students are usually searching for ways to get high scores. Apparently seniors Russ Kreck, Sean Magee, and Nancy Chiu had the right idea, as all were National Merit Scholarship Finalists, which means they were among the nation's highest scorers. The other winners from FCHS are David Covin, who graduated early last year, and Kurt Fenstermacher, who moved.

Chiu and Kreck both agreed that the tests are "pretty straight-forward" and "don't have a lot of hidden meanings." Chiu stated that it is "good to go with your first answer."

None of the three spent much time preparing, although Chiu and her friends "jokingly read a vocabulary book the night before." Overall, there is nothing to do to prepare but take the SATs. Even the PSATs aren't a valid preparation because they're much shorter and easier.

"Grades don't have much influence," said Kreck, "I don't do a lot of work . . . My grades aren't in line."

"The grades put a lot of pressure (on my younger brothers and sisters)." Chiu stated, "They don't make friends or money, really." By: Courtney Danner

Outstanding Member

Scarlett Knott- Jr. Civitan Director

Scarlett Knott, a senior here at Falls Church, was elected to serve as a Junior Civitan International Director.

Scarlett was elected at the Fifth Annual Junior Civitan International Convention in Richmond, Kentucky, along with the president, vice president and two other directors. As for Scarlett's feelings of being elected Junior Civitan Director, "I was ready to take on responsibilities. I was also looking forward to meeting new people and traveling." She felt it was very nerve racking, but exciting as well.

She will serve as an official representative of nearly 17,000 Junior Civitans throughout the U.S., Canada, and Norway. Scarlett will speak at seminars, conventions, and must attend two Junior Civitan International Board Meetings.

In August, the Junior Civitan International Board gathered in Birmingham, Alabama at the world headquarters for an intense three-day meeting where many projects, programs, and policies were set-up and discussed for the upcoming year. In January, Scarlett attended another Jr. Civitan International Board Meeting in Canada. Scarlett commented, "Civitans has broadened my views about life and turned my goals in a different direction."

Juniors Improve Throughout '86.

This year has been the most active for the Junior class, with Prom being their main objective. They started out the year taking first place in the Homecoming Float competition and second place in Pride Week hall decorating. In November they sponsored the Powder Puff game, followed by the Ten-kilometer run and numerous candy sales. The Junior class worked hard throughout the year to raise enough money to pay for the Blue Room at the elite Shorum, where the '86 Prom was held.

Class Rings Turn That Rock!

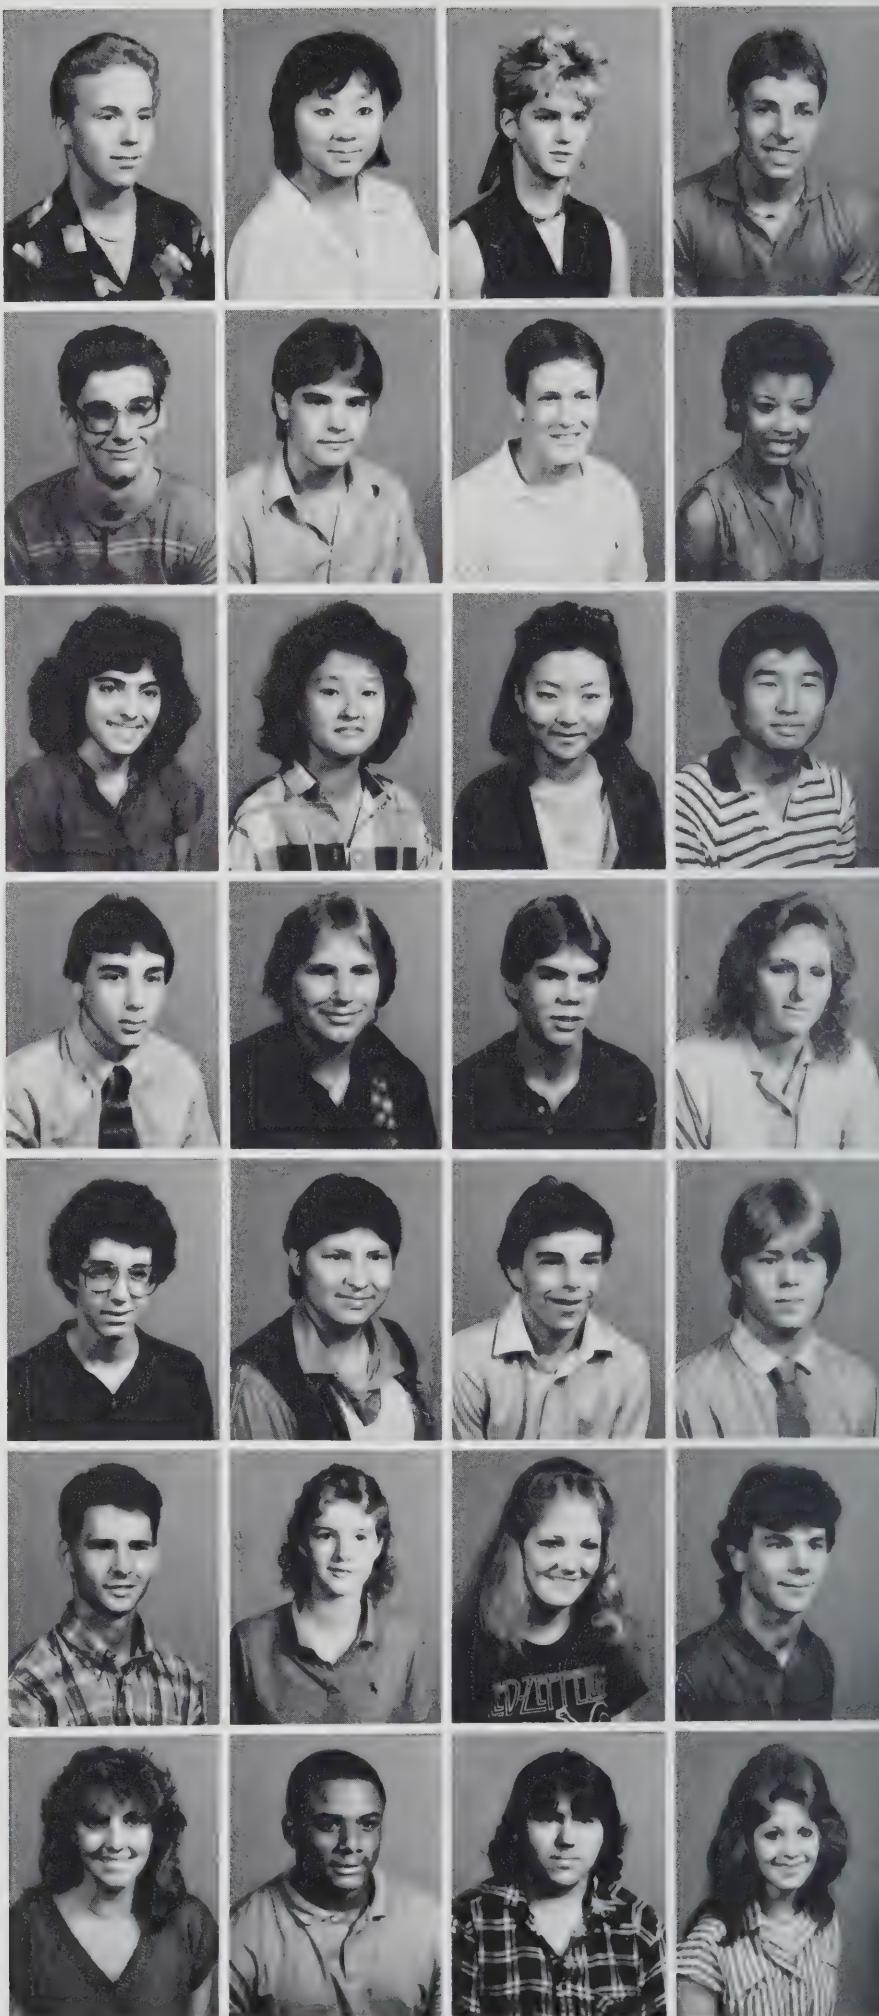

What is something that every senior has, every junior gets, and every underclassmen wants? Class rings seem to fit this description.

After making their many decisions of what color, what size, and what style, this year juniors received their rings in early October. This angered many seniors because they had to wait until the spring of their junior year to receive theirs.

The frenzy in the cafeteria as the juniors got their rings was a sight to see. "This is the happiest day of my life," one dramatic junior said, "But seriously, finally getting my class ring is exciting." This was the feeling of most juniors as they went around school saying, "Turn my ring." Who will be the lucky number of '87?

Sophomore Spirit Raised In '86

The sophomore class, this year, is led by President April Armstrong, and sponsors Donna Ring and Mr. Bennett. They are carefully preparing to take on the responsibility of a prom next year. So far, bake sales and M&M's seem to be the most successful fund raiser for this class. But money isn't the only concern for the Class of '88. Another goal is to raise the spirit here at Falls Church, a concern that the J.V. Cheerleaders are trying to solve. Already there has been a dramatic change in the noise level coming from the "sophomore" bleachers at the pep rallies and the class involvement is also rising. Sponsor, Mr. Bennett, commented on the Class of '88, "I think that as a group, these students are very talented and nice young people." The Class of '88 would like to leave a respectful and lasting impression on Falls Church.

WFCH Cable Radio

Rocking Falls Church At Lunch With Radio.

As the clock strikes 8:45 am David Deagon and Micheal Corleone begin another day of radio broadcasting at Falls Church High School's radio station. "THE MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS . . . GOOD MORNING", the familiar jingle that signals the intercom speakers to life. With a spice of comedy and a shake of serious radio announcing the members of WFCH morning crew file though the morning announcements, broadcasting live throughout the school.

WFCH CABLE RADIO has provided the students of F.C.H.S. a valuable source of information as well as entertainment the eager "LUNCH MUNCHERS" with the latest HIT/ROCK music during lunches A and B. Completing its third year of broadcasting WFCH has become an important part of Falls Church student's lives. Founded in 1983 by Bob Edgar (a.k.a. Rob Spencer), WFCH broadcasts through the B channel of the intercom system. This gives the radio staff full use of all 200 speakers throughout the school and leaving the all-call system free for the use of the administration for emergencies.

"This has been the best year for WFCH CABLE RADIO", explain's Deagon, General Manager/Air Personality, "Our broadcasts have reached their fullest potential, we have the most proffesional high school radio program I've ever heard.

This year a new program was designed by sophomore Ricky Greenburg, the rock show aired each Wednesday. Highlighting new and old rock 'n' roll music presented in a DC-101 type atmosphere.

So what's to look forward to next year? Well probably the same old announcing "The Morning Announcements . . . Good Morning" Jingle, that same old spicy attitude towards that same old pile of announcements, and the same old intercom speaker screaming with life during the lunch periods. Andy maybe, a few surprises . . . until then, one can only say; Look out for the surprises.

Miss T.E.E.N. '85

Jennifer Hummel Crowned Va. Miss T.E.E.N.

Jennifer Hummel, a sophomore here at Falls Church was crowned Virginia Miss T.E.E.N. in September of 1985. As Va. Miss T.E.E.N., she maintains a "B" average, does volunteer services, and must make public appearances throughout Virginia. In addition, she represented Va. at the National Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant in Albuquerque, New Mexico. She is involved in many extra-curricular activities in and out of school. She is a Junior Varsity cheerleader, a member of the Jaguar Yearbook staff, and dances at Dance World Studio. "I have had a lot of great experiences in my life, but none were as exciting as this!" commented Jennifer.

Freshmen Get Off To A Good Start At F.C.

The Freshmen Class started off their first year at F.C. well. Unlike many classes which wait until their Junior year to start raising money for Prom, the Freshmen started this year by selling lollipops. Their goal is to get the Freshmen Class involved and to raise class spirit. By Jay Williams

Smoothing Relations

Falls Church Students Work To Mend Relations With Wakefield.

As part of an attempt to continue to improve relationships between Falls Church and Wakefield high schools, seven Falls Church students visited Wakefield high school and met with students of Wakefield in their cafeteria and attended an English before touring the school. The Falls Church students were greeted by English teacher, Mr. Masakura, and students Ricky Moten and Irvin Garner.

Wakefield students treated the visiting Falls Church students to lunch and an informal discussion in the cafeteria, where they were also

The Falls Church students were impressed by the computer classrooms at Wakefield. They also visited a sociology class briefly.

Falls Church had been planning this trip for several months. Future visits between the two schools will be attempted to provide a forum for continued dialogue. Both school have offerings that can be useful to the other. greeted by Mr. Hill, Principal of Wakefield. The initial meeting between the students was relaxed with Wakefield students creating a positive atmosphere to get to better know each other.

With the continued support of both school administrations, more positive results can be achieved. Mr. Edward Ryan, Principal at Falls Church, was supportive of the student efforts and made the whole trip possible by contacting school officials at Wakefield.

This type of cooperation between school systems serves as a model to show how to accomplish goals through appropriate channels.

SG And Class Officers Set The Standards

The Student Government provides a representation of students in school affairs. As usual, the uniquely special personalities of each member contrived to the over-all character of the organization.

Every year student government elections are held and the student body elects student they think will represent their class well. These students must be dedicated responsible and hard working.

The SG voices the opinions and feelings of the students it represents. SG and the class officers also help the faculty to solve problems which exist at FCHS. by; Suzy Barber

The Cream Of The Crop

Making The Grades And Keeping Them Up.

The National Honor Society, not to be confused with the National Rifle Association does not license guns. It does something even more exciting, it inducts members. Yes, whereas, the NRA was responsible for at least 20 deaths this year, we inducted that many people. However, like the NRA, the NHS does have strict qualifications which must be met for acceptance. The members of the society are all very good students with grade point averages over 3.5, who are just as dedicated to many other activities. All in all, these are a bunch of great kids. As members of the NHS, we find ourselves eager to broaden our intellectual horizons, promote our growth, and to promote interest in the NHS (not the NRA) we as a group attended a play and qualified with our semi-automatic handguns. We are proud to say we are the NHS (not the NRA).

F.C. Key Club

“The Key To A Better Tomorrow”

The Key Club is the most popular high school service organization in America. Key Clubs are Kiwanis sponsored service organizations aimed at serving both school and community. Under the direction of President Drew Borden, this years FCHS Key Clubs has participated in many high school and community service activities. These activities included such things as: cleaning the football stadium before Homecoming, collecting food at Giant Food Stores for the needy before Christmas, helping to build a playground for the mentally retarded at the Northern VA training Center, volunteering for the Special Olympics, and volunteering for the Adaptive Aquatics program. The club consists of sixty members, one half male and one half female. The officers include: Drew Borden (President), Tom Dalkin (District Secretary-Treasurer), Carter Borden (Vice-President), and Guy Hart (Secretary-Treasurer).

Broadway Bound

F.C. Drama Department Brings Classic Productions

This year has been a very full and exciting one for the Drama Dep. The first big project of the year was to host a theater workshop here at FC in October. Guest speakers were invited from all aspects of theater. An actor from the Folgers Theater talked about doing Shakespeare and Andrea McArdle (Broadway's original Anne). The students of the Drama Department helped out during the workshop by acting as guides, room liaisons or by selling refreshments.

The second activity the department participated in was the state Thespian Conference.

They taught a classical theater workshop, specializing in 17th century theater. Several students auditioned for various college representatives and all of them made callbacks.

Other Drama Department activities included a trip to New York in April and a performance in Baltimore of Moliere's Misanthrope.

Plays performed this year were: Arsenic and Old Lace on Halloween, The Misanthrope in December, and South Pacific in March. By Lara Adcock

Yearbook Staff

A Few Pull Through.

The 1986 Yearbook staff did its best in completing the book this year with the members they had. The staff started out the year with about 25 members, and finished with an actual working number of about 7. The staff was plagued with transfers and withdrawals of students who looked at yearbook class as a place to sleep or play paper football.

Photographers and copy editors worked long hours after school towards the books completion. The few skilled photographers the staff did have, came through with excellent shots to make up the book.

As the final last chance deadline approached, the staff pumped many long hours into the completion of the book.

The Yearbook Staff hopes counselors will consider the handicap unmotivated students place on the publication of a book. Obnoxious loud students have no place in the way of such an important school project. Furthermore, students were allowed to transfer into the class at will.

Yet, getting them out involved weeks of parent-teacher negotiations. It is sincerely hoped that counselors in the future will find a better place for these wayward students besides unloading them on the Yearbook Staff.

Making The News

The Staff That Keeps Falls Church Informed.

The Jaguar Journal, "The Voice of Falls Church High School," has once again had a banner year. For fiscal year 85/86, the hardworking staff managed to put out as many issues by the end of third quarter as had been put out during the entire 84/85 year.

The staff, under the all-knowing leadership of co-editor-in-chief Britt Roberts and Mary Gatton (who, by the way, worked their fingers to the bone, let's all give them a big hand, clap clap clap), strove their hardest to bring you monthly reports on the latest news around the school, witty commentary from their jolly band of jocular satirists, student's opinions on local and world events, and all the action from the Wide World of F.C.H.S. Sports.

Occasionally, though, things did get a little slow, as the need to socialize overwhelmed the need to put out a paper. However, all was not lost, as, from out of the blue came The Bets (staff advisor and all around head honcho Betsy Harris), to prod them back to the task at hand.

To put it bluntly, the Jag Journal has had a hunky-dory year, and has managed to keep the news-hungry student body supplied with the information it so desperately needs to survive in this dog-eat-dog world.

The following is a list of all the marvelous, hardworking people who have enriched your life with the Jaguar Journal:

Marching To A Better Tune

Band Requires True Dedication.

The Marching Band is one of the many colorful aspects of Falls Church High. A lot of work goes into the finished productions that the spectators get to see at sports functions and pep rallies. Work begins during the first week in August when all band and color guard members travel to Orkney Springs, Virginia to attend a camp headed by Mr. Charles Hiebert, band teacher, Jeanette Manion, Guard Instructor, Chuck Hawkins, a former student at F.C., and Dr. Robert Miller, music consultant. Members spend up to fourteen hours a day marching and learning new routines. As Kim Cartwright says, "It's a lot of work but we have a lot of fun doing it."

About ninety students are presently enrolled in band class, with senior Susan Hawkins, being the drum major, and Dana Lee (also a senior) being the captain of the color guard. Presently the members are working on their musical skills and preparing for the spring trip to Virginia Beach. There, the band will take part in a symphonic competition, a parade, and a marching field show, with prizes being awarded in each category. "We're looking forward to the spring," says Amy Debes, "because we hope to be able to end the year successfully with some prizes to show for our hours of effort."

Changing Style Increases Spirit

F.C. Cheerleaders Lead The Jags
With Pride And Spirit.

The F.C. Junior Varsity and Varsity Cheerleaders attended a camp at U.V.A. for the first time in nearly ten years. This camp was basically for the cheerleaders to learn the new "stiff" style. But the camp proved to do much more than that. The I.C.F. (International Cheerleading Foundation)

Camp emphasized many things. Most of all, squad unity. This means balance, strength, control, concentration, timing and lots of practice! It also means squad closeness. While at camp, ribbons were awarded to the squads. Junior Varsity won: Super Spirit, 110%, 3 Sparkle and Shine, Grand

Cheerleaders

(cont'd from page 129) J.V. Cheerleader, Jill Hanbury said, "Cheerleading is super but camp is the BEST!" Not only have the cheerleaders themselves improved, but the difference in the spirit here at F.C. was felt by all.

In remembrance of Mrs. Totten, their last years' co-cheerleading sponsor, they hosted a County Cheerleading Jambo-ree to raise proceeds for the Northern Virginia Hospice. A wonderful amount of $222 dollars was sent in the name of Mrs. Liz Totten. The cheerleaders also attended their first competition on April 5, 1986 at Kings Dominion and went through very serious preparation in order to create a super. The practices are long and hard and frequently end in pulled muscles and sore arms. Although Cheerleading is not considered a sport here at F.C., it is in many high schools and colleges. The Varsity Cheerleaders who have donated all four of their high school years to cheerleading are: Heather Hutson, Cindy Nguyen, Young Bae, Kristy Jones, and Sandy Pozzetto. "The best part of cheerleading was all the people I got to meet and the new friends I made." - Heather Hutson. by: Jenny Hummel

Making A Comeback

New Coaches Spur On Best Season Yet.

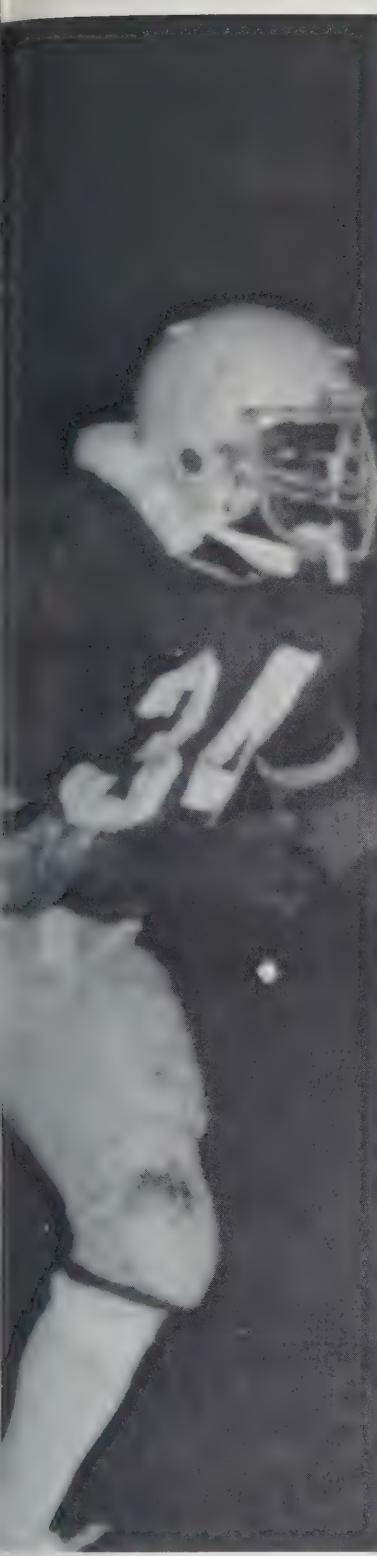

The '85 football team posted an impressive district record of four wins and two losses. The overall season record finished with four wins and six losses. The 4-2 district record was good enough to net the Jags a second place finish in the district division. The Jags missed a codistrict championship by one point in their close 20-21 loss to Wakefield.

The new coaching line up is thought to have brought about the better than average season for the Jags.

Three players; Tony Epperson, Cliff Epperson, and Aaron Sutton gained much attention being named to the Potomac District League. Tony Epperson was not only named MVP for the season, but he was also named to the All Northern Region League which includes all of Fairfax county.

Back On The Field

First Time In Three Years, F.C. has J.V. Team

The Falls Church Jaguars fielded a Junior Varsity Team for the first time in three years. The team consists of a few juniors, several sophomores and one freshman. The team did an outstanding job learning through watching and not actual experience. Only a few minutes each day could be devoted to the J.V. team because of the time needed with the varsity squad.

It is only through perseverance that the team rose to the occasion every Thursday night. The team compiled a 4-2-2 record, losing the district championship on the last game of the season. The coaches would like to thank these young men for their dedication this season.

Freshmen Win Six

Baby Jags Prove They Have What It Takes

The freshman Jaguar football team has ended the year on an up-swing by winning their final two games of the eight game season. The "Baby Jags" finished the year with an impressive record of 6-2. They beat teams from Annandale, West Potomac, Stuart, and Wakefield. The two losses came against Marshall and Chantilly.

The team was coached this year by Mike Pedlowe and Don Brown. The two have worked together in a quest to make this a very good year for the team. Brown commented on the year by saying, "I think that the team did a fantastic job this year and this should give a good foundation for Falls Church football for the next three years."

Running the offense from the quarterback position was John Kugler. "Kugler is definitely a good quarterback and will probably be the next quarterback after Jeff Wilson, the current quarterback for the varsity team," remarked Brown.

The offensive backfield for the Jags consisted of Calvin Chandler at full-back, David Payne at half-back, Thomas Fritter at split-end, and James Yarbrough also at split-end. Brown said that Chandler, Payne, and Kugler all have strong potential for varsity football.

Working the offensive line for the "Baby Jags" are Eric Purvis, Terry Dupree, Michael Hobiena, Lawrence

Frye, Sung Han, and Dennis Williams. Brown said that Han and Williams also have good potential for varsity football.

Dan Troger has done a great job of handling the kicking duties for the team. Brown commented on Troger by saying "Troger did a fantastic job and has the potential to be the next Falls Church kicker."

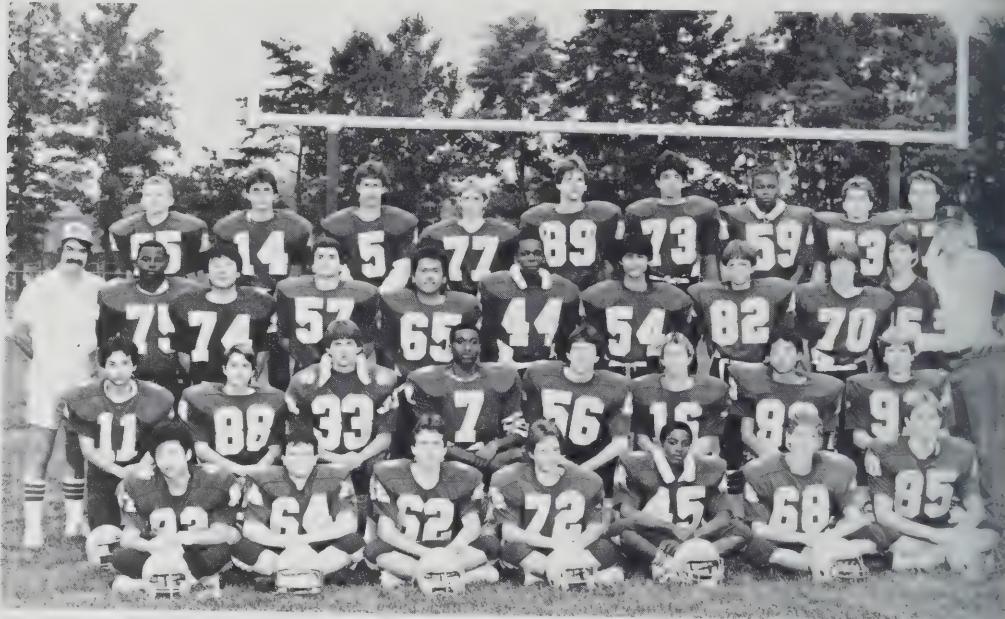

The team did not have any problem in the number of players who went out for the team this year. Forty-three freshmen showed up for try-outs with a final roster of thirty-three.

’85 Proves To Be A Learning Experience For The Jags.

The 1985 golf team ended this year with a record of 0-8. The competition was slightly harder than last year. There were two seniors on the team, two juniors, one sophomore, and two freshmen. "This is a very young team, not much experience with a few exceptions," commented Coach Dolan, "Next year Steve Byrd and John Bibb will shine, they have great potential."

The home course was chosen to be Jefferson District again. Because of the close location, starting on the second day of school, the team practiced daily for a month.

The MVP award was given to Steve Byrd at the annual Fall Sports Banquet. This is the second consecutive year he has received this award. Steve almost made regionals, missing this opportunity by merely five strokes. Better luck next year.

Hopefully the team will bring some victories for the Falls Church team next year. Coach Dolan thinks there is an excellent chance of that.

Pam Watson, the J.V. coach showed the team new techniques and plays, she also improved the girls styles of playing.

Carla Tombson is the Varsity coach, Carla used to attend Falls Church and is now the coach here.

This year Varsity has won two games and lost ten with many running into overtime and tying. When Cathy Davis was asked how she felt about field hockey she replied, "It was a lot of fun. I met a lot of new people and learned many new things."

Coach Jim Koellner, Angie Garneau, Jennifer Burrus, Debbie Ice, Karen Brill, Heather Cain, Audrey Brill, Danielle Dugan, Julie Honroe, Tammy Carcorus.

The 1985-86 swim and dive team ended their season placing last in the district. This wasn't as good as the team had hoped. "We won our first meet against Wakefield, we all thought we could go all the way," said freshman swimmer Caity Davis.

Unlike most sports, the team's rank is decided on where they place in the district final meet held at the end of the season. So, even though the team both won and lost dual meets, it unfortunately made no difference in the final standing.

The team also got, for the first time in at least ten years, an assistant coach, Mr. Jim Koellner. Jim helped the team a lot with both the physical and mental preparation needed to compete. "I'm really glad Jim was there, he really helped me bring my times down," said sophomore Angie Garneau.

The divers have a large involvement in the team. The points they get for diving are added in to the final score. It is difficult to win a meet without them. Falls Church sent three divers to districts this year, junior Joey Whitcomb and sophomores Brian Berry and Joey Wintz. The fourth F.C. diver senior Kevin Johnston was unable to compete. Both Wintz and Whitcomb went to finals. Wintz placed sixth thus allowing him to go to the regional meet and Whitcomb.

Going The Extra Mile

Indoor Track Goes To The Finish With A Good Season

The excellence of the Falls Church High School indoor track team was evident throughout their season. The outstanding season was marred only by one loss to Fairfax by two points. Coach Duncan, his first year coaching at Falls Church High School, explained that the loss was due to some illnesses.

The hard working team was coached by Major Wells and Coach Duncan. The team's major goal was to become Potomac District Champions. Even though they did not win the title, the team came in second.

Many individuals enjoyed satisfying triumphs. Carmen Mann came in first in all four of her events. Carmen set a new District record in girls long jump with a distance of 19'3 $\frac{1}{2}$ ". Tha-dius Love broke his own personal record when he came in second in the long jump with a distance of 22'2". The boys 800 Meter relay team had an amazing first place win over Jeb Stuart. Disappointment For Varsity Jags

Lack of Height Has Impact On Otherwise Super Team.

The boys varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. Pat Dolan, suffered a disappointing finish this year after starting out strong. They finished 10-11 after starting out the in-district play with a 4-1 record. The team, suffering from a lack of considerable height, had to depend heavily on outside shooting, especially from juniors P.J. Kelly, and Jeff Wilson and sophomore George Carter. The inside positions were shared by Peter Gaaserud, Charlie Tutt and Ian Salvary. While the team did not enjoy a winning season, the team played with a great deal of heart and determination.

Captains this year were seniors Johnny Kirkpatrick, and Peter

F.C. Basketball On The Uprising

J.V. Takes 2nd Title; Frosh Ends Good Season.

The team and Coach Martino would like to thank the J.V. Cheerleaders for all their support during the season. Also, and most importantly, they would like to thank their parents, who have been their biggest cheerleaders from day one.

1986 Freshmen Basketball Team:
Freshman basketball finished the season with a 10-8 Potomac District record tying for 3rd place. Although the Jaguars did not have an outstanding record, they did have a very successful year in the eyes of their coach. The gains they made as young men were not always measured in wins and losses.

They enjoyed a season where they learned to overcome their shortcomings by joining closely together as a unit. In the years down the road, they will look back on the lessons they learned as Freshman, to help make the correct decisions in the future.

The team was led in scoring by Chip "Shoes" Heflin, Dan Troger, and Jim Yarbrough. Mike Cribbs, Pat Connelly, Lee Fuglestad, Edwin Garcia, Heath Rasmussen, Mike Keefe, Bobby Moore, Eddie Ryan and Skip Weakly made outstanding contributions during the season. These young men will work hard to produce and continue the winning tradition of the jaguars.

feating the Wakefield Warriors 55-52 in the finals of the tournament. M.V.P. David Edwards topped off an excellent year by scoring 24 points in the finals.

This years squad succeeded through intelligence, hustle, and team play. They were involved in fifteen games decided by fewer than six points. In these close games, the Jaguars were victorious in twelve. Toughness is also a characteristic of this squad. In 22 ball games, the team went to the foul line 488 times. This is an amazing statistic.

After starting out the season with a 4-7 record, the Jaguars went on a tear, winning 9 out of 11 for an overall record of 13-9. This record is a bit deceiving as the team was 11-3 in the district.

In two years, this group has won 2 district titles. If the comradery of these young men stays, the future of Falls Church basketball is on the uprising.

Although the Jags record didn't show much in terms of wins and losses, the Lady Jags still gave a strong fight in almost all of their season games. Having a tough schedule against such high-ranked teams as Annandale, Stuart, and Fairfax, the Lady Jags had determination and drive that Coach Howard Herman was determined to bring out. During the season, Jeanne Kelly showed excellent performance in being the high scorer of the Lady Jaguars, and playing excellent offense and defense whenever playing (which was most of the time). Jeanne never gave up, especially when the Jaguars were in a tight game with a difference of only a few points.

Making It To Districts

Girls J.V. Basketball Season Disappointing; District Record Good.

Although the J.V. girls have seen better days, this year record is 5 wins, 10 losses. Her 1st year at coaching Basketball Mrs Karen White coaches the J.V. Girls team, she also coaches the Varsity Soccer. At present is also a student at George Mason University.

This years M.V.P. was sophomore Heather Brown. The J.V.

team made it to the districts and won 4 out of 11 games. This means they placed 4th in a leage of 7 teams.

Warning: Compete At Own Risk Gymnastics Season Plagued By Injuries.

This was a new year for the Lady Jags. New assistant coach, new people, and a new regime. "The girls have improved so much this year!," commented Mrs. Cronin. This year the gymnasts had numerous 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place individual rankings and a one and five record.

Jane Kelly, the new assistant coach, came to the gymnasts this year with an experienced background. With twelve years of gymnastics training under her belt along with Mrs. Cronin's experience, the coaches aided in producing depth in this year's team with their combined ideas and support.

The tri-captains this year are senior, Melinda Ray, junior, Dyan Gramling, and sophomore Jina Kim. The rest of the team is as follows: sophomores Melissa Farley and Michelle Jackson, freshmen Cheryl Slater, Mary Brooke Meade, Lisa Edwards, Molly Ray, Linda Grillo, Heather Pompa, and Hyun Jung Kim.

People do not seem to realize how difficult and dangerous gymnastics can be. This year the girls have had everything from bruises and ripped hands (literally) to injured limbs and a broken arm. These girls deserve much respect for what they have done. How many people do you know that would get on a piece of equipment that comes with its own warning label? by: Dyan Gramling

Falls Church Wrestling

Slamming To Victory.

The 1985-86 Falls Church wrestling team slammed their way through another season of dual meets and tournaments under the coaching of Dudley Johnson and John Shaffstal.

The Jaguar's season started back in November. The team had practice two hours a day and six days a week to build technique and conditioning for the upcoming season.

The wrestling team was experienced and well-trained with nine returning seniors: Carter Borden, Chuck Laikam, Carl Meadows, Milton Morales, Mike Shrader, Troy Toureau, Tommy Witz and the two returning District Champions Tommy Cannody and Mike Jackson.

Tournaments highlighted the Jags season as the team showed its ability and strength in the district. The St. Stevens Christmas Tournament earned the Jags a fifth place, with proven performer Tommy Cannody capturing a first place finish along with the most valuable wrestler award. The team was awarded the honorable sportsmanship award.

The District Tournament here at FC once again consisted of Annandale, Chantilly, Falls Church, Fairfax, Jefferson and Stuart. The Jags wrestled hard and came away with a forth place finish.

When asked about the season, Tommy Cannody said, "I feel we finished up the season very well. The District Tournament was close, and if we were without the various injuries and holes in our line-up, we probably would have won it." By: Carl Meadows and Jeff Hart.

players. The team had many returning players such as Coung Nguyen, Bivan Patnaik, and Marcello Bardaras.

F.C. Tennis Team

Young Team Hopes For Better Years.

This years girls tennis team was very young as far as experience. They had many new players who filled the slots of last years seniors. The overall win-loss record was not great but there were many close individual matches. First year coach, Sharon Pedlowe did a great job working with each girl on their individual skills. By the end of the season, everyone had improved. All the girls had fun this season and are planning a better record for next year.

Boys' Soccer

This year, as it seems to be the trend at F.C., the soccer team has a new coach, Chuck Humphries. Varsity goalie senior Jim Clark said of the coach, "He gets into the game and the team, he's one of the gang, he's nuts and we love him." This is not to say that discipline lacks on the team. Strong emphasis on physical fitness and team work has aided the Jags towards a promising start.

The team is quite young and should show well this year and in future years. This year's team captains are Jim Rodrigues (senior) and Rob Ogden (junior). The team hopes for a successful season and that it can keep a coach for more than a single season. By: Jim Rodrigues.

Girls Soccer

Team Strives For Improvement

The idea of J.V. soccer is to build for the future. They obtain quite a bit of experience as they practice and play in the season games.

The J.V. girls do have previous soccer experience. The team has many days of long, hard, practice to build strength and learn to be productive as a team.

The whole team puts in their fair share of practice to become improved in their skills and techniques. The team knows what needs to be done and executes it on the field. The J.V. girls are led by team captains Karen Evans, and Barbra Hale.

The Girls Varsity soccer team has built for the future in returning almost all of their players from last year.

2nd year Varsity coach Karen

White stated "Our first scrimmage last year was a loss, but we still did well in the season, so I hope that our first scrimmage this year shows how we will improve again, then we can be even better this season."

Dawn Cannon, Melanie Green, Jackie Cannon, and Jennifer Lyons, made the All-District team last year, and will hopefully perform as well this year. The skill of these players will be needed to take the team to a regional championship. The J.V. girls team consists of 3 seniors, 3 juniors, and 6 sophomores, and 7 freshman. The team is young but looks forward to great season based on learning and improving.

Baseball season, the sign to most sports fans that spring is really here, has finally begun in full force. The team started out with a strong win over Osborne Park and there are great expectations for the season, optimism, and enthusiasm run through the talk of the players on the field and off. As Doug Wieland puts it, "We have the best team this year and I'm going to be playing first at states." With an abundance of good players, equipment, and a great home field, Falls Church expects a strong season.

The 1986 Jaguar Softball team had good experience in most positions with: Anne Swartchick, starting pitcher; Marrianne Littleton, Karen Railey, Sofia Apostolou, Danielle Little, Helen Kelliher, Susie Cunningham, and Kelly Schriefer, a transfer from Florida; all returning lettermen.

The keys to this season are found in a solid defense, timing defense, and the pitching. The pitching staff is a little young with junior, Ann Swartchick and sophomore, Debbie Smith.

The other members of the team are: Marsha Schmied, Lauri Tarnenner, Angela Garneau, Julie Hanh, Jenny Monroe, and Tonya Chalou.

Test? No, No Never!!!

I Didn't Know We Had One.

You hear people moan and groan about the 36 tests and quizzes they have on Thursday and the 52 they have on Friday. What is the purpose of a test? To review all the material we are supposed to know? No way, impossible. People have made every excuse to get out of a test; some say, I wasn't here for the review, I was absent that day, I have an early dismissal pass, I didn't know we were having one, I thought the test was tomorrow, and I had to work last night and did not have time to study.

Students have definitely argued these points to teachers. Some how the teacher always win, why? because their the boss that's why. Some teachers at FC are ruthless when it comes to a test. Mr. Margrave is a perfect example of this, he gives quizzes that are 365 pages long and take 12 days to complete. Another example would be Mrs. Valentine who gives tests that are not on the stuff you studied.

Gettysburg Fieldtrip

American Civilization Gets Rained On In Pennsylvania.

In November, the American Civilization GT class traveled to Gettysburg, the sight of the famous battle that more or less decided the outcome of the Civil War. They went there as a part of their study of the war. The students were taken on a tour of the surrounding town and countryside so that they could identify and recognize the historical sights they had read about. It was considered an exciting experience by most of the students, a few of them calling it "worthwhile". Matt Hoffman, junior, said, "It really felt like you had been there, or something." The trip lasted all of one day, and the class was able to look at some of the real cannons and artillery used in the war and trace the ridge along which Pickett's Charge took place. They also visited the Town Cemetery there, a Federally controlled property where members of both armies are buried.

When the class returned to the school, they began work on a magazine of poetry and art about Gettysburg, which they themselves created. The magazine was called Divided They Fought . . . United They Died. Basically, the purpose of the magazine, according to the students, was "to try to express our opinions and understandings about the whole deal of Gettysburg."

Next year, the teachers are planning to maybe take their new American Civilization Class on the trip to Gettysburg. It's an experience not soon forgotten. Or at least that's what the teachers say. By Corry Chapman

F.C. Students Attend Model OAS

Falls Church Students took part in the Model Organization of American States General Assembly held at the OAS Headquarters in Washington, D.C. on Nov. 4

The participating high school students debated and discussed current political, social, economic and security problems facing the Western Hemisphere.

OAS secretary, General Joao Clement Baena Joares referred to the Model General Assembly as "an invaluable opportunity for these students to learn and understand more about other cultures in the Americas, their traditions, policies and the history that has shaped their people."

Falls Church students taking part in the Model OAS were: Alice Armstrong (head delegate); Mathew Wixson, Paul Hahn, Mary Christ and Susan Southworth (delegates); Jenny Larson, Suzy Barber, Alan Abdolbasher, Rhonda Ely, and Van Va, alternates.

Learning The Future

Computer Classes At F.C. Train Students For Tomorrow.

After facing the students since 7:45 in the morning, Mrs Whiteside and Mrs Elliot have to become students themselves. For three hours once a week they have computer classes to try and keep ahead of their students.

Mrs Whiteside the Business Data Processing teacher has a hard time trying to keep up with some of the students, like Anh Tran, who is always ahead in her programs.

Mrs Elliot is the second teacher, who teaches computer science. Some kids just take the computer class as an easy pass, and others take it for the points.

When Kim de Beyer was asked how she liked BDP, she replied "I love it, it is the best class I have all day and I don't have to do much either."

Sometimes the classes can be very challenging, especially when you are trying to write a program, it gives you a great feeling, said some students.

Computers are the beginning of a new generation to the world. Those students who like to work with computers are very lucky, because the future of the world one day will depend on them.

Class On The Beach

Diary Of An A.P. Biology Student.

Again this year, as in many years before, the A.P. Biology class, taught by Mrs. Carolyn Canzano, took their annual trip to Lewes, Delaware. The first leg of the trip began at 4:30 AM when the alarm clock went off. The next problem was to determine how one goes about getting out of bed at such an early hour of the morning. After you discover that you are not merely having a nightmare, and you pull yourself together, the rest is easy. You get to sleep for 3 hours on the way to Lewes, but after arriving at your destination, you are put to work immediately. Whether trawling, digging up snails, collecting water samples, or gathering shells, your work is definitely cut out for you. After finishing numerous experiments at Lewes, the bus travels to Indian River Inlet, where more experimenting takes place. The final stop on the way home is Sandy Point beach, where still more experiments are being carried out. After arriving home, it's time to... (go home!) Wrong! It's time to unpack and prepare your specimens for further tests. Overall, the annual A.P. Biology trip to Lewes is considered to be a long-awaited (and well-deserved) break from the normal classroom study.

Parental Update

Parents Go Back To School To Get The Dirt.

The annual night of familiarizing parents with their child's school and new teachers took place with success this year. The parents turned out in surprisingly large number to benefit from the activity. Likewise, the teachers of Falls Church were all present for as long as it took to address the parents' questions.

The parents attend each of their kid's classes in the same order the students do during the school day. The parents get a first hand look at the class atmosphere and meet the teacher who are responsible for the students. The parents usually enjoy meeting and conversing with the teachers one on one to gain a greater understanding about all aspects of their child's education.

Students usually find the evening boring and choose to stay away, but for others the night is excellent for building parent-teacher-student relations. The teachers and administrators obviously all place a great deal of interest and support on back to school night, and this year the parents respond with an excellent turnout.

Memory Of Mrs. Totten

At the beginning of the school year, faculty and students were distraught to hear about the death of Mrs. Totten, 33, a math teacher. Last summer Totten had an operation that seemed to have removed all signs of cancer in her body. Later in February, she felt a pain in her arm. This pain was caused by a spot of cancer on her lung. She started treatments to fight it. By then, it was too late. The cancer had spread too far to control. She died on August 8th at 10:00 p.m.

Totten was a well loved teacher by, faculty and students. In a memorial statement, Mr John Whitney, math department chairman commented, "I will remember Liz and I'm sure (you) will too, as a person who put all she had into whatever she did. Whether it be teaching, caring for her horses, being a wife to John, taking tickets at football games, keeping score at basketball games, helping with cheerleading, doing class sponsorships, or combating cancer . . . all these things she threw herself into wholeheartedly and never wanted self pity."

Totten was cared for very much. Through this year, and many more, she will be remembered. By Carol Swaringen.

Time For Moving On: The End

The year of refining the system is now complete and it is time to move on. For many students at Falls Church, that means continuing their education here, and striving for what they want out of life later. For the Class of 1986, it means moving out into the real world of business or secondary education.

The year of refining the system has been very good for the Falls Church sports teams. The Varsity Football team won the Bell from Stuart for the first time in five years. J.V. girls basketball went to the districts and the J.V.

boys basketball team walked away with the district championship after an exemplary year.

The people who attended Falls Church in 1985-86 will all carry the memories of the past year. The new friends we have made, the old friendships we have strengthened. The triumphs and the tragedies we have all shared together. The surprises and the disappointments all meshed together with time of the past school year we have all shared together as a class.
